Art Unit: 1714

Claims 9, 11 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Each of the claims recites a "poly(hydroxyl ether)". The specification enables only poly(hydroxy amino ether).

Claims 12-15 recite the limitation "poly(hydroxyl amino ether)". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims. Claims 11 and 15 recite "poly(hydroxy ether)".

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cavitt et al.

Cavitt et al disclose methods of preparing poly(hydroxy amino ethers), PHAE. In the course of these preparations, solutions of PHAE in aqueous HCl are produced (see Examples).

Art Unit: 1714

Therefore, the reference anticipates the rejected claims.

Claims 3-6 and 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mang et al.

Mang et al disclose articles of manufacture comprising PHAE and fiber with relative proportions of fiber greatly overlapping those claimed instantly (see column 2, formula II; column 4, lines 6-19; column 5, lines 6-17 and claim 16).

Although the reference does not disclose the intermediate product of an aqueous solution of the PHAE, it is the position of the examiner that once the final article is produced, no difference exists between the article of the reference and that of the instant claims.

Therefore, the reference anticipates the rejected claims.

Claim 16 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 7 and 8 are allowed.
